

From Creation to Salvation

An Evening of Personal Reflections on Biblical Events by the People Involved in Them

Written and Presented by

Roger Price

Sometimes when we read the Bible we take note of what happened but overlook the people caught up in the events. In this series of monologues Roger takes you to the centre of those events. By looking into the hearts of those ordinary people who were part of extraordinary happenings, you will be taken to the heart of the Gospel stories.

The evening begins with a sideways look at the construction of the universe before moving on to incidents in the life and ministry of Jesus and the development of the early church. Roger concludes by examining the events surrounding the first Easter weekend.

The full presentation lasts about 1 hour 20 minutes. A longer version, allowing for an interval, and a shorter version suitable for friendship groups is also available. Roger makes no fixed charge for these presentations. He relies on voluntary donations to enable him to continue and expand this work.

Comments on "Parables" - an Earlier Production

You (Roger) have a great gift with words and, perhaps more importantly, insights to explore. - Rev. Chris Hughes Smith, Former President of the Methodist Conference

Jesus was the original sound-byte communicator. And who can forget the story of the Good Samaritan or the lost sheep? The parables make it alarmingly clear that God's love is not fair. It is more than fair. Roger Price has recovered some of the shocking nature of the parables by weaving them all together into one story-event. Not only is 'Parables' a very clever feat of writing it does exactly what Jesus did with his parables - intrigue, challenge and give hope to us all that we are all on the receiving end of this more-than-fair-love of God. - Rev. Pauline Warner, Methodist Minister

What better way to share the Good News than in one stunning, dramatic, funny evening. It will spark an interest in those who are not familiar with the Gospels, and lead on to further conversations, as well as challenge those who think they know something about the Bible! Don't let this opportunity pass you by. - Rev. Andrew de Ville, Methodist Minister
